7th Annual Las Vegas Model UN Conference
February 7-8, 2020

LVMUN VII Position Paper Format Guidelines

Each delegation is required to construct and submit a written position paper outlining the background of their assigned topic, past and present UN involvement regarding the topic, and their assigned country's policy along with solutions to combat the issue. Remember, position papers are utilized to help each delegate effectively research and compile their ideas, information, and solutions to assist them throughout debate.

Each paper must be formatted according to the following guidelines:

Page Limit:

Position papers should be limited to the following lengths. Please note that specific committees have different requirements.

1-2 pages in length for the following committees:

- General Assembly
- Economic and Social Council
- Social, Humanitarian, and Cultural Committee

3-4 pages in length for the following committees:

- United Nations Refugee Agency (UNHCR)
- Security Council

Font:

Papers must be typed in Times New Roman, 11 point font Double Spaced.

Heading:

Country Name: China
Committee Name: General Assembly
Represented by: (Your name)

Topic: Combating Terrorism in the Middle East.

Section Titles:

Each paper should include four separate sections: Background information, UN Involvement, Country Policy, and Proposed Solutions.
